

The Belsteads School Discipline and Grievance Policy

Version	1
Name of Responsible Person	Peter Adams – Chair of Governors Signed:
Date Ratified	1 st October 2017
Date Issued	1 st October 2017
Review Date	17 th October 2018 - Board
Electronic Location	T Drive - Policies

Contents

Page 2	Statement of Intent Disciplinary Procedure
Page 4	Conduct
Page 5	Grievance Procedure Disability Equality Scheme

STATEMENT OF INTENT

It is our intention to create a good working relationship between Employees and management, to promote effective and open communication and to ensure that the required standards of performance, attendance and conduct are maintained. The Employer aims to provide a safe forum where Employees may raise problems concerns or grievances. In some cases, the Employer may need to take formal disciplinary action to address problems such as poor performance, poor attendance or misconduct. At times, Employees may wish to bring to the Employer's attention concerns or complaints in relation to their employment. It is the Employer's intention to implement just and effective arrangements for handling disciplinary and grievance matters to ensure fair and consistent treatment of all Employees.

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

The Belsteads School firmly believes that the fairest way to resolve any problems relating to conduct or performance is to have a well-structured disciplinary procedure. The procedure is designed to help and encourage all employees to achieve and maintain The Belsteads School's standards of conduct, attendance and performance and should be looked upon as a corrective process.

Please read the following principles and procedures carefully as they form an important part of your Terms and Conditions of Employment:

Principles

Apart from an informal verbal warning, you have the following rights in relation to disciplinary action:

- to be informed of the allegations of misconduct or poor performance to be addressed at any disciplinary hearing
- to be accompanied by a work colleague or by a trade union official
- to appeal against any disciplinary action.

The procedure

Any disciplinary action will only be taken after a full investigation of the facts. You will always be given as much information as possible regarding the allegations of misconduct, or any documentation detailing the shortfall in performance or capability that will form the basis of the disciplinary hearing. You will also be given fair and reasonable notice of the date and time of the hearing and whenever possible the disciplinary hearing will be held during your normal working hours.

Suspension

During any investigation and disciplinary proceedings, it may be necessary to suspend you for this period of time. In situations where this is necessary you will receive your normal rate of pay, and will be expected to be available for any required meetings or hearings that you are asked to attend within your normal working hours where appropriate. Whilst on suspension you should refrain from contacting colleagues and address any communications to the proprietor. Suspension is not an assumption of guilt.

First Written warning

In the case of conduct, attendance or performance not reaching the required standard, the problem will be discussed with you at a disciplinary hearing where you will be given the opportunity to offer a satisfactory explanation. If the explanation is unsatisfactory, you will be issued with a first written warning. The topics discussed at the meeting will be confirmed in writing to you and the written warning will remain on your file for six months.

Final Written warning

If there is still insufficient improvement in your conduct, or if your performance is still unsatisfactory, you will be asked to attend a further disciplinary hearing. If no satisfactory explanation is offered for the lack of improvement, you will be issued with a final written warning that will remain on file for 12 months.

If the misconduct is sufficiently serious to warrant only one warning but is not sufficiently serious to justify dismissal, a final written warning will be issued. You will be informed in your final written warning that any further misconduct or failure to meet the required standard will result in your dismissal.

Dismissal

Dismissal will normally result if you still fail to achieve the standard of conduct or performance required by The Belsteads School. You will be given every opportunity to offer an explanation for your failure to meet the required standards at a final disciplinary hearing. As with all previous stages of the disciplinary procedure you will be offered the right of a witness and the right to appeal against the decision.

If you are dismissed, you will be provided, as soon as is reasonably practicable, with the reasons for dismissal, the date on which your employment will terminate and details of how you may appeal.

In exceptional circumstances, The Belsteads School reserves the right, as an alternative to dismissal, to impose a penalty of suspension without pay for up to a maximum of five working days, together with a final written warning that will remain on file for 12 months.

General

The Belsteads School reserves the right to vary the disciplinary procedure dependent on either the severity of the allegations of misconduct or capability to be addressed, or if you only have a short amount of service.

If you are a short service employee or are still within the probationary period, you may not be issued with any warnings before dismissal.

NB The Belsteads School reserves the right to deduct from pay the cost of any damage or loss to property or goods, which after a disciplinary hearing was found to have been caused by your negligence or vandalism.

Disciplinary appeal procedure

At each stage of the disciplinary procedure, you will be given the right of appeal. If you wish to exercise your right of appeal, you should put your reasons in writing to the Governing Board within five working days of receiving written confirmation of the disciplinary decision taken against you. You will need to explain why you feel the decision is unfair, or inappropriate in relation to the matters addressed at the disciplinary hearing.

If you have any new information or evidence to support your appeal, please give details in full and include the names of any witnesses you may wish to call to support you in your appeal. This is in order that there will be sufficient time to investigate any additional information before the appeal hearing. You are entitled to be accompanied at the appeal hearing by a work colleague or by a trade union official.

Although the purpose of the appeal is to review any disciplinary penalty imposed, it cannot increase the disciplinary penalty.

The decision of the Governing Board dealing with your appeal is final.

CONDUCT

The Belsteads School expects all employees to behave in a professional and reasonable manner. The following list provides examples of the type of conduct that The Belsteads School would expect:

- To be punctual for the start of work and to keep within the break times.
- To give regular attendance at work and to minimise all absenteeism.
- To be courteous, helpful and polite to all those with whom you have contact.
- To devote all your time and attention, whilst at work, to The Belsteads School and ensure that all its property including confidential information, records, equipment, information technology, etc., is kept safe and used correctly.
- To comply with all The Belsteads School's rules and regulations and to observe and perform all the terms of your employment as set out or referred to in your Contract of Employment.

Conduct outside working hours

Normally The Belsteads School has no jurisdiction over employee activity outside working hours. Behaviour outside working hours will only become an issue if the activities adversely affect The Belsteads School.

Adverse publicity, bringing The Belsteads School name into disrepute, or actions that result in loss of faith in The Belsteads School, resulting in loss of business, or loss of faith in the integrity of the individual, will result in the disciplinary procedure being instigated. Conduct outside of work includes activity on social media and other forms of communication.

The detriment suffered by The Belsteads School will determine the level of misconduct and it will also determine which disciplinary stage is most appropriate to suit the circumstances.

If the actions cause extreme embarrassment or serious damage to The Belsteads School's reputation or image, a decision may be taken to terminate the individual's employment.

The Belsteads School's procedures covering disciplinary hearings and appeals still apply.

Gross misconduct

Gross misconduct will result in summary dismissal, which means you lose your right to notice or pay in lieu of notice. Here is a list of offences that are normally regarded as "gross misconduct". It is not exhaustive, but it describes the kind of offence that can result in summary dismissal:

- Deliberate failure to comply with the published rules of The Belsteads School, including those covering cash handling, security, health and safety, equal opportunities, the Internet, etc.
- Deliberate falsification of records.
- The committing of offences against current discrimination legislation whilst acting on behalf of The Belsteads School.
- Fighting or assaulting another person.
- Using threatening or offensive language towards customers or other employees.
- Making yourself unfit to work by solvent abuse, drinking alcohol, taking of illegal substances or failing to follow medical instructions on prescribed drugs.
- Being in unauthorised possession of The Belsteads School's property.
- Being in possession of illegal drugs and substances or alcohol whilst on Company premises.
- Obscene behaviour.
- Behaviour likely to bring The Belsteads School into disrepute.
- Willful and deliberate damage to or misuse of Company property.
- Refusal to carry out reasonable duties or instructions.
- Conviction on a criminal charge that is relevant to your employment with The Belsteads School.
- The misuse including use for personal gain, of confidential information while working for The Belsteads School.
- Undertaking private work on the premises without permission.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A grievance procedure is quite simply a way for all employees to discuss any problems, or air their views on any dissatisfaction that relates to their work. An informal discussion can often resolve matters, but if you wish to raise the grievance formally, it should be done in the following way.

Submit your formal written grievance to the Head Teacher who will make every effort to hear your grievance within five working days. If you feel that you need help in putting your point of view across, you may ask a work colleague or trade union official to be present to help you explain the issue you are raising.

Should your grievance be about the Head Teacher, submit it to the School's Proprietor who will make every effort to hear your grievance within five working days. If you feel that you need help in putting your point of view across, you may ask a work colleague or trade union official to be present to help you explain the issue you are raising.

If you are not satisfied with the outcome of your meeting, tell the person who dealt with your grievance that you wish to take the matter further and intend to appeal against the outcome.

Submit your formal written appeal to the School's Governors, including an explanation of why you are dissatisfied with the original decision. Every effort will be made to hear your appeal within five working days and you may ask a work colleague or trade union official to be present to help you. Although the Belsteads School will always be willing to try to resolve your grievance as amicably as possible, a decision reached at the appeal stage is final.

DISABILITY EQUALITY SCHEME

In reviewing this policy, we have taken into account consideration of any potential implications of the Disability Equality Scheme.